The Lonesome Losers

About

The Lonesome Losers are the Twin Cities premiere tribute to Yacht Rock. Covering a blend of soulful smooth soft rock hits that range from1974 to 1984. Featuring music by artists such as Christopher Cross, Ace, Player, Carly Simon, Kenny Loggins, Michael McDonald, Orleans, Pablo Cruise, Toto, Supertramp, Gerry Rafferty, Climax Blues Band, Grover Washington, Jr., Linda Ronstadt, Nicolette Larson, Steely Dan, Stevie Nicks, Carole King, Captain and Tennille, George Michael, Ambrosia, The Little River Band and so many more. The Lonesome Losers provide a night of unforgettable talent paired with a one of a kind catalogue of songs that is sure to keep your guests dancing, singing and “Reminiscing” all night long.

The Lonesome Losers at its core is a six piece band. The addition of a saxophone player is always offered as an option and makes for a very nice addition to the show when requested. With an extensive song list and incredibly versatile players the Losers consist of some of the Twin Cities most talented, entertaining, hard working and professional musicians. With decades of collective experience and an endless index of influences, the Losers have the ability to bring spot-on renditions of some of the greatest songs of all time.

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Yacht rock (originally known as the West Coast Soul or adult-oriented rock) is a broad music style and aesthetic identified with soft rock. Yacht rock was one of the most commercially successful genres of its era, existing between the late 1970s and early 1980s. Drawing on sources such as smooth soul, smooth jazz, R&B, funk, and disco, common stylistic traits include high-quality production, clean vocals, and a focus on light, catchy melodies. Initially used pejoratively, its name was derived from its association with the popular Southern Californian leisure activity of sailing.
